Protocols for Remote ID Verification for Vetting Checks

The National Vetting Bureau have provision to allow their checks to go ahead, even during current restrictions. The process is thus:

1. The person verifying the ID (Designated Person (DP) or Minister) hosts a video call (Zoom, WhatsApp etc) with the applicant;
2. The applicant shows the DP/ Minister whichever ID documentation is being used to support the application;
3. The applicant then emails the DP/ Minister copies of these documents (scan or photograph) along with the completed paperwork. (Please note that this pack can be completed electronically if that is the applicant's preferred choice, as long as it is emailed from the address used to initiate this vetting check);
4. The DP/ Minister completes the paperwork. Please note that electronic signatures are permissible as long as the pack is sent from the DP/ Minister's email address. This pack is then emailed to vetting@irishmethodist.org
5. At the first session of volunteering, the applicant must bring the originals of the ID Documents to be verified in person by the DP/ Minister.
